You've Taken the Kuder Assessments...

After you have learned about your career interests, there are several options within your Kuder Portfolio to help you plan for college and a future career. Take your planning a step at a time, and you will find that not only can you make good decisions about your career and education options, but you will be able to adapt more readily to changes in your own life and in the "real" world.

Learn About Careers

From your assessment report, review your highest-ranking career clusters and their related career information including description, occupational outlook, typical tasks, required education, wages, and more. Save occupations of interest to your My Favorites list by clicking on the gold stars.

Explore Your Education Options

Based on your favorite occupations, begin exploring appropriate technical, two-year, and four-year postsecondary education options using the Select a College link and the Choose a Major link.

Create an Education Plan

Use the Education Planner to develop or refine a four-year high school plan that will prepare you for work in your selected cluster(s).

Review the Planning Timeline

Continue to check the Planning Timeline to make sure you are on track with important education and career events.

Take Notes

Document your career exploration activities by keeping appropriate notes and documents. The Note Taker feature allows you to keep this information in one place.

Build a Resumé

Begin building a basic resumé using the Resumé Builder and the Resumé Help area. Continue to add to and update your resumé(s) when applying for colleges, scholarships, and careers.

Find Financial Aid and Scholarship Opportunities

Start researching financial aid and scholarship information using the Find Financial Aid feature. Check with your guidance counselor to learn about local scholarships.

Keep Your Family Involved

Share your assessment results with your parents, guardians, and other family members and include them in your college and career planning process. Learn about their college and career planning experiences and current occupations.

Career planning is a lifelong process! Continue to return to your lifelong Kuder Career Portfolio to explore more career options, research additional educational opportunities, update your resumé(s), and more!
